

Initiative Management

Drive savings efficiently to improve bottom-line impact

Gain complete visibility and control over your savings pipeline, while managing the entire initiative lifecycle from idea, to execution and reporting.

Your in-house solution hinders your savings and procurement impact

Spreadsheets, non-specialized project management tools and other in-house setups obstruct effective collaboration and procurement impact.

Struggles with version control

Unable to measure bottom-line impact

Poor communication

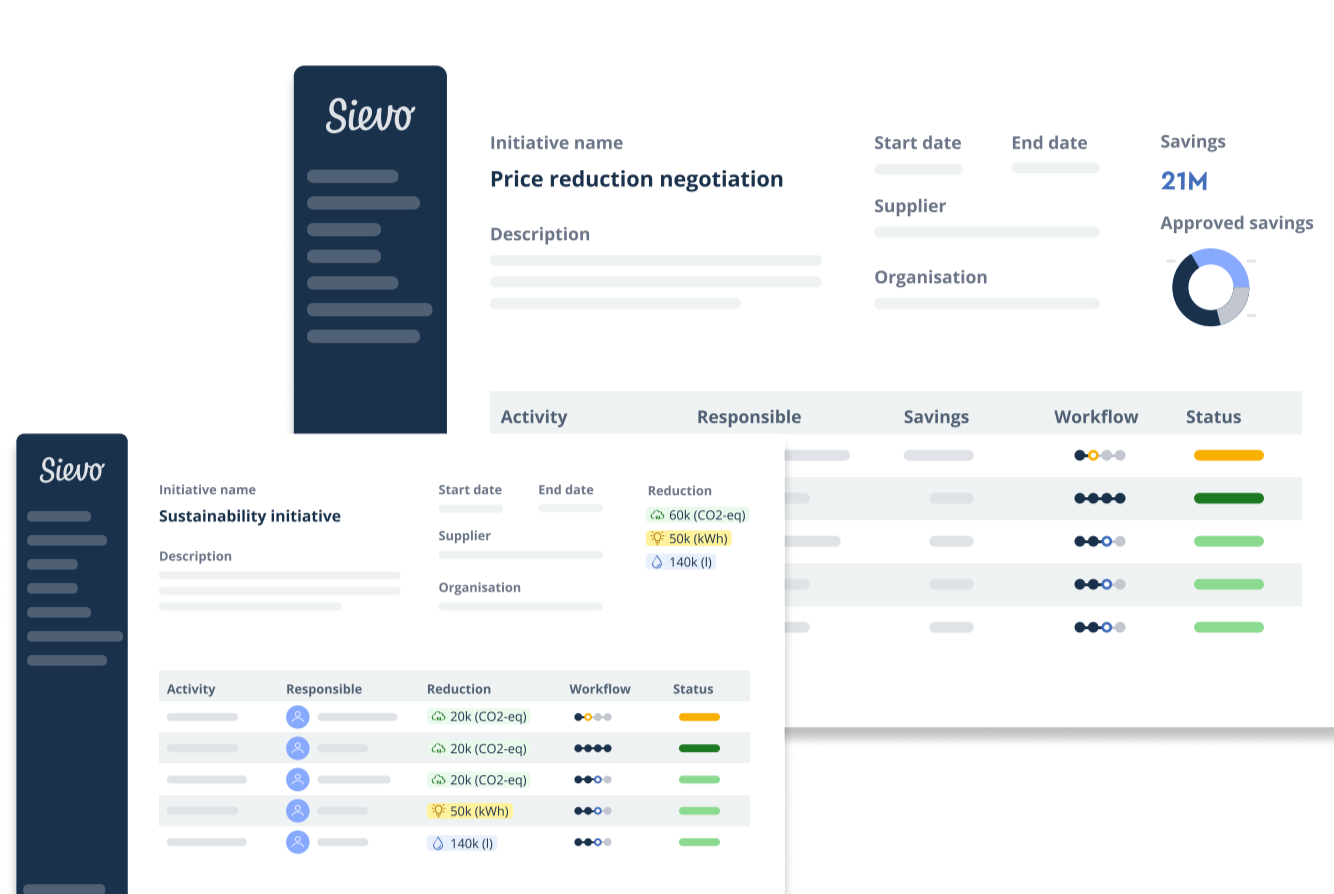

Endless alignment meetings

Advanced savings performance management and reporting capabilities beyond the scope of basic tools

With Sievo Initiative Management, achieve millions in savings and procurement efficiencies, without burdening IT or other company resources.
